

Transfagarasan – The most beautiful road in the world (Wallachia, Transilvania)

According to Top Gear and CNN, Transfagarasan (152 km up to 2042 m high) is the most beautiful road in the world. According to us Transfagarasan is a must see route if you want to drive over the clouds, or to see breathtaking landscapes in sunny days. Before starting to drive on Transfagarasan we will visit one of the most beautiful monasteries in Romania, in Curtea de Arges. We will get closer to the highest mountains in Romania and to the real fortress of Dracula in Poianari. For people who can climb 1500 stairs, a visit to this fortress is recommended. After we left behind the huge barage of Vidraru we enter the Transfagarasan. For about 4-5 hours the landscape is amazing. We will cross the mountains and arrive in Transilvania where we can visit the Fortress of Fagaras. At our return if we have enough time we can have a walking tour of the beautiful city of Brasov.
