

Transalpina – The most wild and highest road in Romania (Wallachia, Transilvania)

According to us, Transalpina (120 km up to 2145 m high) is the wildest and highest road in Romania. According to us Transalpina is a must see route if you want to drive over the clouds, or to see breathtaking landscapes in sunny days. According to us, Transalpina is one of the most beautiful destinations in Romania. Before starting to drive on Transalpina we will visit the Reservation of Trovants, stones that grow themselves, and then one of the most beautiful monasteries in Romania, in Horezu (UNESCO Patrimony) and also the Horezu pottery village (included also in UNESCO Patrimony). After we enter Transalpina, for about 4-5 hours the landscape is amazing. We will cross the mountains and arrive in Transilvania. At our return if we have enough time we can have a walking tour of the beautiful city of Sibiu – the cultural capital of Europe.
